P: What goes unrecognised is that death of starvation is only the most dramatic manifestation of a much more invisible malaise-of pervasive, stubborn, chronic hunger.

Q: Yet it surfaces into public consciousness only transiently, in moments when there are troubling media reports of starvation deaths.

R: Among these are entire communities, utterly disenfranchised and asset less.

S: And, that there are millions of forgotten people in India who live routinely at the very edge of survival, with hunger as a way of everyday life.

S6: Like the Musahaars, a proud and savagely oppressed Dalit community in Bihar and Uttar Pradesh, who own not even the land on which their tenuous homesteads are built

P : Nehru's idea of secularism was equal indifference to all religions and bothering about none of them. Q: According to Gandhiji, all religions are equally true and each scripture is worthy of respect

R: Such secularism which means the rejection of all religions is contrary to our culture and tradition. S: In Gandhiji's view, secularism stands for equal respect for all religions

S6: Instead of doing any good, such secularism can do harm instead of good.

Q69. With new seasons of reality shows being telecast every month, the viewership of these shows has increased. Viewership and participation in reality TV show is mostly induced by two common motivators : fame and money. The shows transform common people who are otherwise obscure gures to household names. A few successfully maneuver their small stint with fame to become celebrities. Winners of Reality shows reap huge nancial rewards for acts including eating large insects, marrying someone they barely know, and revealing their inner most thoughts to millions of people

Reality shows owe their popularity to the fact that all their participants become rich and famous
